

PASSING & RECEPTION

RECEIVING AND PASSING TOWARDS THE SETTER

Learning to pass/recieve is a crucial part of volleyball. It requires a perfect stance and perfection in hand stability.

Passing is the first step in building an attack. Without a clean pass, the setter cannot execute the play.

Focus on body positioning, footwork, and reading the serve early. A stable reception brings control to the entire team.